

Saturday, October 30th, 3 PM

Roebling Point Books & Coffee

306 Greenup St. Covington, KY 41011

Outdoor Poetry Reading & Book Signing

ELLEN AUSTIN-LI's work has appeared in Artemis, Thimble Literary Magazine, Writers Tribe Review, the Maine Review, Panoply, Green Briar Review, Pine Mountain Sand and Gravel, and other places. Her chapbook, Firefly, was published by Finishing Line Press in 2019 & her second chapbook is Lockdown: Scenes from Early in the Pandemic (FLP). A recipient of the Martin B. Bernstein Fellowship in Poetry, she is an MFA in Poetry candidate at the Solstice Low-Residency MFA Program in Boston. Born and raised in Upstate, New York, Ellen lives in a newly empty nest in Clifton. Find more of her writing at:

<https://ellenaustinli.me/>

ERICA MANTO PAULSON is a monitrice, teacher, and poet with deep roots in her Italian-American history. She is also a lifelong Ohioan who finds inspiration for her work in the people and the fertile fields of her home state, drawing on a deep connection to the surrounding world. Her poems have appeared in Thimble Literary Magazine, The Northern Appalachia Review, Sheila-Na-Gig, Porkbelly Press and other anthologies. Erica's debut chapbook, Hunger, was published by Finishing Line Press. She lives in Dayton, Ohio with her husband and their seven children.

KAREN GEORGE is author of five chapbooks, and the following collections from Dos Madres Press: Swim Your Way Back (2014), A Map and One Year (2018), and Where Wind Tastes Like Pears (2021). Her work appears or is forthcoming in Adirondack Review, I-70 Review, Valparaiso Poetry Review, Salamander, Sheila-na-gig Online, Indianapolis Review, and Poet Lore. She's received grants from Kentucky Foundation for Women and Kentucky Arts Council, and holds an MFA in Writing from Spalding University. She retired after 25 years as a computer programmer/analyst to write full-time. She lives in Florence, Kentucky, enjoys photography and visiting forests, museums, cemeteries, historic towns, and bodies of water. Visit her website at: <https://karenlgeorge.blogspot.com/>.